When fall rolls around in the beautiful Wisconsin Dells and Wisconsin River Valley it packs a wonderful punch! A fun and educational weekend is planned for The Belted Galloway Society's Annual General Meeting October 15-17, 2010 in Wisconsin Dells area.

The Wisconsin Dells takes its name from the dells of the Wisconsin River, a scenic glacially-formed gorge that features striking sandstone formations along the banks of the Wisconsin River. In nearby Mauston, the John and Diane Hamm family are proud to be assisting the Belted Galloway Society, Inc. and Great Lakes Belted Galloway Association in hosting the 2010 meeting in South Central Wisconsin.

John and Diane welcome you to tour their Wisconsin River Farm and enjoy seeing cattle located adjacent to the beautiful Wisconsin River, its beautiful rock formations, and wildlife. John and his business partner, David Mauer, welcome you to their family business, Wisconsin River Meats. While at Wisconsin River Meats you will have the opportunity to sample Beltie beef and Wisconsin specialty products, view carcasses and see cutting demonstrations while viewing the results of the "High Steaks" carcass contest. A Wisconsin farm style lunch will be served and guests will also get in some hands on training in tattoo application. Contact John at 608-847-74136 or to learn more about Wisconsin River Meats at www.wisconsinrivermeats.com.

Great Lakes Belted Galloway Association would like to invite you to join them for a great educational and fun-filled weekend at Ho-Chunk Casino & Hotel. The Ho-Chunk Casino & Hotel in scenic Baraboo-Wisconsin Dells is conveniently located on Highway 12 South. Please contact the Ho-Chunk Hotel toll-free at (800) 446-5550 (reservations) or www.ho-chunk.com. Rates are $70 per night. The Ho-Chunk Nation's Whirling Thunder Ranch recently dispersed their herd of Belted Galloway cattle to several breeders in the state of Texas. Although the Ho-Chunk Nation no longer owns a herd of cattle, they are providing the accommodations for the meeting.

A Wisconsin welcome is extended to you to join Beltie breeders for lots of Beltie talk and events in the heart of the region that helped start the Great Lakes Association. Many of the founding members still maintain Beltie herds today. All the major highways that lead to the Baraboo area: from the North (Twin Cities), the South (Chicago and Madison), and the East (Milwaukee) contain Great Lakes members with Belted Galloway herds. They are happy to make themselves and their herds available to visit and tour for travelers to the Annual General Meeting or leaving the meeting on your way home. You can make arrangements by contacting the members directly.

If you need any help locating breeders along your travel route to the meeting, please contact: Kathi Jurkowski, Terry Willis, John Hamm, or Terry Etheridge for assistance. Stop by and visit the GLBGA booth at the hotel and learn what the GLBGA is all about. We look forward to meeting with all our old friends and the opportunity to make new friends and ... talk Beltie Bull this weekend!
